better health after going up to Kemmanagundi. I hope you are all in Ooty now.

I am pleased to hear that your daughter miss. Phelomena Thumboo Chetty is to be married to her Cousin on the 17th June. I am indeed very happy to learn about it. I wish I could be present on the occasion. Any how I wish to send you and he would be couple my hearty congratulations on this happy occasion.

I am enclosing an appeal received by me here from Field Marshal Sir William Birdwood. I told him that I am not in a position to do anything, left as I am in an unrecognised & in a dissatisfactory financial position and that the same has been forwarded on to my brother, who I assured him would do what

I read the copies of Dr Subba Rao's letters and found them interesting.
The copy of Major Davies' letter has also been received and I wrote that the photograph has been sent to Doty for approval. I think you have done a right thing in merely acknowledging receipt of the photograph sent along with his letter.

I am very glad to learn that my brother has been maintaining

I was present at the Abbey on the coronation day and the ceremony was very interesting solemn and impressive.

Hoping you are all very well. R. N. R. Wadiyar

With best wishes
